Company stock sold at 122. The bond market was decidedly slow. but the various issues were held firmly. A sale of Georgetown Gas 5s was made at 105%.

Nor was there any difference in industrials and rails, save that the declines in the former were much more severe, as there has been but comparatively small interest in the group for some time, while the bulk of public speculation has been in the industrials.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK. October 9.—There was a sensational break in the cotton market at the opening here today. Apprehensions that the latest submarine developments would check exports, resulting in accumulations of cotton in the American markets, seemed a shock to buyers on the recent bull movement, and there was excited general liquidation. First prices were 29 to 40 points lower, with December selling off to 16.90, January to 16.75 and March to 16.98 under urgent offerings from Wall street, western and commission house sources. Traders in this market were big buyers at the decline of approximately half a cent from the recent high level, however, and there were rallies of several points from the lowest before the end the first hour.

Liverpool was relatively firm and was probably influenced by fears of restricted importations from this side, as well as by the strength of Egyptian.

Futures opened weak; October, 16.92; Joecember, 17.08; January, 16.90; March, 16.95; May, 17.05; July, 17.17.

The rally from the early low point carried December contracts up to 17.08, January to 17.03 and March to 17.20, or back to within 17 or 19 points of Saturday's closing figures. The tone, however, continued very nervous and prices broke again around midday on a renewal of heavy liquidation, with December breaking to 17.90 and January to 15.76 early in the noon hour, or about 36 to 46 points net lower. NEW YORK, October 9,-There was a

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, October 9 .- Activity of submarines in American waters caused a violent break in the price of cotton here as soon as the market opened today. On the opening call the market lost 46 to 65 points, the sharpest slump in a few minutes' time regis-tered this season. Heavy buying by bullish traders met the decline, and at the end of the first half hour of business a substantial recovery had taken place, the market reacting to within 10 to 15 points of Saturday's close.
Futures opened irregular. Opening bid: October, 16.38; December, 16.37 asked; January, 16.34 asked; March, 16.48; May, 16.70.

Steadying Influences Are Greatly Increased by Crop Damage Report From Argentina.

CHICAGO, October 3.—Notwithstanding that on account of submarine operations and consequent selling rushes wheat prices underwent a sensational setback today, the market soon recovered equilibrium. The steadying influence was greatly increased by crop damage reported from Argentina, together with a decided rise in prices at Liverpool.
